

INDIVIDUAL STUDENT AGREEMENT

Please be so kind to read carefully the following Student Exchange Agreement of Understanding. Complete the required information, sign and return¹ it to the International Office at the University of Colima prior to arrival. This agreement contains important information that may impact the academic conditions of the Exchange Student at the University of Colima.

- In order to be accepted into the University's regular programs, visiting student must send all required documents. If a letter of recommendation states that Spanish language proficiency is suitable as required to understand, read and write; the student could be accepted. As soon as the visiting student attends the academic program at the University of Colima, and for some reason the program notifies the international office limited Spanish proficiency to properly develop in the course, the visiting student will not be allowed to enroll in regular courses, instead, the student will consider the proposal to study a language course (12 weeks, intensive Spanish with additional cost) or consider the option to return to the home institution.
- The student that has been admitted at the University of Colima under the frame of a Reciprocal Exchange will be exempt of tuition fees for one semester. The student is responsible for all the payments including fees for insurance, meals, books, student ID card and other expenses beyond tuition fees.
- All incoming students should arrive with a valid student visa that will support the length of stay planned.
- As a university, we must ensure that incoming students comply the regulatory requirements regarding international health insurance as a condition of the student acceptance in the University of Colima.

The University of Colima offers different international health insurance plan options provided by Atlas. For additional information about costs, you may contact relacionesinternacionales@ucol.mx

- The student is not allowed to work while enrolled as an exchange student.
